

Bhairav Kunda Trekking

<https://www.nectravels.com/package/bhairav-kunda-trekking/>

Bhairav Kunda means in a holy lake named after a destructive name of lord Shiva the “Bhairav”. The “Bhairav Kunda” is located to the northeast of Kathmandu and next to Panch Pokhari and closer to Nepal-Tibet boundary.

After breakfast we take a bus ride out of the Valley and up through the hills. After a 4 hours bus ride we will arrive at the trek starting point called Jalbire. Jalbire is a traditional small town full of “Newari” culture. We are going to spend the first night of our outdoor adventure right near the small “Newari” town of Jalbire.

Our Guide gives a briefing on trekking on the first night. He also explains about the altitude sickness and all the beautiful spots from where you can see an excellent view of mountains. During the rest of our 13 days trip, you will observe the different ways of life, culture passing through the dense forestations and grazing lands. The top of Bhairab Kund offers an admirable view of Rolwaling range, Jugal himal and some mountains of Tibet as well. On the last day of the trip we will take a bus ride back to Kathmandu from Larche.

Itinerary

Day Day 01: Arrival in Kathmandu and transfer to Hotel/Welcome dinner.(D)

Day Day 02: Sightseeng in Kathmandu valley. (1310m) (B.)

Day Day 03: Drive Kathmandu (1350m.) - Jalbire (1000m.) then trek to Chanaute (1350m.) (B.L.D.)

Day Day 04: Trek Chanaute - Khani Gaon (2000m.) (B.L.D.)

Day Day 05: Rest day with Local Village sightseeing (B.L.D.)

Day Day 06: Trek Khani Gaon - Forest Camp (3150m.) (B.L.D.)

Day Day 07: Trek Forest Camp - Pati (3765m.) (B.L.D.)

Day Day 08: Trek Pati - Bhairab Kunda (4250m.) (B.L.D.)

Day Day 09: Trek Bhairab Kunda - Sherpa gaon (2500m.) After Sunrise view. (B.L.D.)

Day Day 10: Trek Sherpa gaon - Larcha (1500m.) and visit Tato pani/ Hot spring on highway. (B.L.D.)

Day Day 11: Trek Larcha - Return back to Kathmandu by bus.(B.L.)

Day Day 12: Final Denature to your country. (B)