After an early breakfast, you are ready to do a sightseeing tour in 4 major places in Kathmandu – Swayambhunath (Monkey temple), Boudhanath, Pashupatinath, and Patan durbar square. We begin today's sightseeing tour with a visit to Swayambhunath, a 2500-year old site where, it is believed, the Radiant Lotus of the valley-mythology, settled when the water was drained by Manjushri, the god of Wisdom. The 5 dhyani Buddha's attended by their consorts are enshrined at the base of the stupa. (Non-Hindus are not allowed inside Swayambhunath temple) then continues tour into Boudhanath it is the world's largest stupa and of Tibetan Buddhist Culture in Nepal. Antique shops where you can buy things of your interest relating to Buddhist surround the monastery. After Boudhanath your next spot is The Pashupatinath temple which stands along the side of Bagmati River. It is the holiest Temple for Hindus. Many people from different parts of Asia visit this Temple. Temple dedicated to lord Shiva, is also a site for Hindu cremation. During the festival Shiva Ratri temple is crowded by devotees. At last we will take you to Patan durbar square to explore Patan Durbar Square, Mahaboudha Temple, Kumbeshwor temple, Krishna Temple, Golden Temple and many other places of Patan, you feel as if Patan has been unveiled before you as an open museum showcasing intricately carved windows, intrinsic roof struts, statues of gods and goddesses, temples designed in pagoda style with erotic carvings and repoussé metalwork facades and many other exquisite facets. You will also get to see handicraft centres in Patan then drive you to the Hotel.

Day 03: Bhaktapur and Nagarkot Overnight Tour

After breakfast Drive to Bhaktapur city. Bhaktapur Durbar Square is a unique old town divided into 24 traditional localities. It is also famous by the name 'city of devotees' as the landmark has the great influence of religion, culture and tantrism. The beautifully designed Bhaktapur durbar square is the center of attraction for its unique structure and rich cultural heritage. After that we will drive to Nagarkot which is at an altitude of 2175 m above sea level. Nagarkot is a popular tourist spot of Nepal. The panorama of the major peaks of eastern Nepal Himalayas including Sagarmatha (Mt. Everest-if weather permits), can be seen from here). The Himalayan peaks Like Manaslu (8463 in). Ganesh Hinial (7111 in), Langtang(7246 in), Choba Bhanre(6016 in), Gaurishanker (7134 m) and number (6957 in), are also clearly seen from Nagarkot). Overnight at a Hotel in Nagarkot.

Day 04: Drive Nagarkot to Chitwan (240 km 7-8 hrs)

Early in the morning we enjoy the charming sunrise view & amazing surrounding landscapes, forests, Mountain View and the clear horizon. After that, we will drive to Chitwan national park, located in the lowlands of Southern Central Nepal. This particular place takes you to the tropical forest, grassland and river landscape with a vast wildlife. As soon as you reach Chitwan, you check into the hotel, have lunch and not waste much of our time. You will begin a few Chitwan activities like elephant safari, jungle walk, canoe trip and possibly visit the elephant breeding center . Enjoy Tharu cultural programme in the evening. Overnight at hotel.

Day 05: Chitwan National Park (Whole day jungle activities)

Like canoeing, crocodile conservation project tours, wildlife museum visits, local sightseeing with various ethnic groups' communities, nature walks around the bank of Rapti River, bird watching etc. You can see the one- Horned Rhino, deer and birds. If you are really lucky, you can see the Bengal Tiger too. After completion of these activities, you get back to the hotel and overnight at the hotel.

Day 06: Drive from Chitwan to Pokhara (160 km 5-6 hrs)

After breakfast we will leave the plain of Chitwan and drive north towards mountains again. Vantage points on this section of highway offers picturesque view of Himalayan peaks atop verdant hills drained by cascading white water. Pokhara appears as amphitheater of mountains with lofty snow peaks towards north. Later we will explore Phewa Lake, the biggest of three lakes in pokhara. Overnight at hotel.

Day 07: Explore Pokhara

Today early in the morning, you drive towards Sarangkot to enjoy the stunning view of Sarangkot 1592m above sea level to enjoy the stunning view of sunrise with the panoramic view of Fishtail Mountain. Get back to the hotel for breakfast. Start driving to Gupteswar Gupha is a sacred cave located near Devi's Fall. The cave is almost 3 km long. It has some big hall-size rooms and some passages. This cave holds special value for Hindus since a phallic symbol of Lord Shiva is preserved here in the condition it was discovered and taking pictures inside the cave is prohibited. Mahendra Gupha(Cave) Another of nature's wonders in Pokhara is the Mahendra Gupha. This large limestone cave is locally known as the House of Bats, an apt name for it. it is best to bring your own torch to see the stalactites and stalagmites, as well as the local winged residents. Devi's Fall Locally known as Patale Chhango, Devi's Fall (also known as Devil's, Devin's or David's) is an awesome waterfall lying about 2 km south-west of Pokhara airport on the highway to Tansen. Legend has it that a trekker (Devin, David...) was washed away by the Pardi Khola and disappeared down into an underground passage beneath the fall. The Old Bazaar Pokhara's traditional bazaar is colorful and so are its ethnically diverse traders. In its temples and monuments can be seen ties to the Newar architecture of the Kathmandu Valley. Located about 4 km from Lakeside, the market's original charm is alive and well. The International Mountain Museum, located at Rato Pairo, boasts historical documents, records and chronicles on mountaineering. Spread over a total floor area of 4,242 sq. m on a total land area of 12.5 acres, the museum houses three main exhibition halls: Hall of the Great Himalaya, Hall of Fame and the Hall of World Mountains. It also houses a library, a prayer room called Lakhang and an audio-visual room. Other attractions include models of glorious peaks, mannequins of famous mountaineers and the culture and lifestyle of the mountain people. Seti Gandaki. Flowing right through the city, the boisterous river runs completely underground at places. Amazingly, at certain points the river appears barely two meters wide. But its depth is quite beyond imagination – over 20 meters! Mahendra Pul, a small bridge near the old Mission Hospital, provides a perfect view of the river's dreadful rush and the deep gorge made by its powerful flow. Overnight at hotel.

Day 08: Drive from Pokhara to Kathmandu (210 km 6-7 hrs)

After breakfast, you will be driven back to Kathmandu. After reaching Kathmandu (7 Hrs. drives) you can rest and relax throughout the day at the hotel. If you are interested in taking some gifts home from Nepal for friends and relatives, you can visit some nearby shops or venture out in Thamel for typical Nepalese goods. Overnight at Kathmandu .

Day 09: Onward destination

Your journey in Nepal comes to an end today. Our representative will escort you to the airport approximately 3 hours before your scheduled flight.
