<https://www.nectravel.com/package/mt-pumori-expedition/>

Mount Pumori is located in the Everest Region most popular for those who wish to climb over 7000m peaks in Nepal Himalaya. We arranged both the logistics and support and guided climbing for the Pumori expedition.

The Mt. Pumori Base Camp can be reached with a 30 minutes Mountain scenic flight to Lukla and trek through beautiful Sherpa villages Namche Bazaar, Tengboche – Dingboche and Lobuche. We set the base camp at 5300m, which is beside a beautiful small lake from where you can get beautiful views of Mt. Everest, Mt. Nup Tse and Kalapathar.

About 4 hours hrs walk you will reach camp 1 or advance base camp at 5700m. From Camp 1, we climbed 500m. on the face with 40-60 degrees slope and pass through a snow wall, one tunnel climb to reach camp 2 at 6200m on a narrow ridge. Approximately 450 m climb through ice with 30-60 degrees slopes passes through ice walls and few crevasses reached at the height of 6480m at camp 3. The final day walking through crevasses and Pumori cliff takes you to the summit of Mt. Pumori with fascinating views of the Tibetan plateau, Mt. Everest, Mt. Lhotse, Mt. Ama Dablam, Mt. Cho-Oyu and more.
