Hindu Pilgrimage tour is one of the famous tours in Nepal because of the Pashupatinath Temple which is situated at the bank of holy river Bagmati.

Hindu Pilgrimages in Nepal for Lord Shiva, Lord Vishnu and Ma Shakti. According to Puranas Himalaya is home of Lord Shiva and Parvati. Hence there are many Pilgrimage sites related to Lord Shiva in Nepal. Pashupatinath Temple is the Holiest pilgrimage of Lord Shiva. There are several Shakti-peeths related to Durga Ma throughout Nepal. Dakhinkali and Guheswori are the most famous Shakti-peeths of Kathmandu valley. Other important Shakti-peethas are Pathibhara, Shaileshwari, Vindhyavashini, Manakamana, Jogeshwari etc. Such Shakti-peeths are usually situated on the top of a mountain. The confluence of rivers particularly when they are major tributaries of the Ganges, is always regarded as religiously significant by Hindus. As it is believed a third spiritual river also joins. Such a confluence is called Triveni.
