

Annapurna Royal Trekking

<https://www.nectravels.com/package/royal-trekking/>

Royal Trek is one of the shortest & beautiful treks that follow a shrub like path along the foothills of Annapurna north of the Pokhara valley.

The Royal Trek is so-named because Prince Charles and his 90 person entourage had explored this route in the early eighties. This trek provides the opportunities for meaningful cultural experiences with the diverse mix of people and cultures that inhabit this region.

The journey of Royal trek begins in the beautiful lakeside city of Pokhara and passes through beautiful Gurung hamlets. During the trek, we are able to enjoy stunning views of the eloquently built hillside rice terraces, the magnificent Annapurna range, Machhapuchhre Mountain views. The trip finally ends at the scenic Begnas Lake which is about 30 km west of Pokhara City.
