Itinerary

Day 01: Arrival in Delhi

After breakfast transfer to Delhi Golf Club. The 6972 yards, PAR 72, 18 Hole Golf Course was redesigned by Peter Thompson in 1977 – 78 and got a major fillip when it was chosen to host the first ever golf tournament at the Asian Games in 1982. More than 500 Golfers walk into History every day, as they play in the country. s busiest course. The Club also has a Nine Hole B Course used primarily by beginners. The first hole on the main course is a 522 yards, PAR 5, which doglegs to the left around a thorny bush rough. Afternoon return back to Hotel.

Day 02: Delhi Sightseeing

Optional sightseeing tour of Delhi visiting Old and New Delhi both. Overnight hotel.

Day 03: Delhi - Chandigarh

Drive to Chandigarh. On arrival in Delhi, check into the hotel. P. M. Half-day city tour. Overnight hotel.

Day 04: Chandigarh

Have breakfast and proceed to the Golf Club. Starting a Golf Course in Chandigarh was conceived in the 50s, it took almost 10 years for it to take shape. In 1960 a piece of land was allotted and the club was established with an initial membership of just 10 Golfers. The 09 Hole course was enlarged to 12, when the benevolent governor – who surrendered a major chunk of land from his official residence – granted additional land to the club in 1966. It was only as late as September 1983 that a regular 18 Hole PAR 72 Course was finally laid out over Sprawling 132 Acres. Afternoon return to the hotel. Overnight hotel.

Day 05: Chandigarh - Shimla

After breakfast, drive to Shimla. Afternoon city tour of Shimla. Overnight hotel.

Day 06: Shimla

Shimla was summer capital during British Raj & no English Township could be completed without a golf course. A suitable site was finally chosen at Naldehra, which is 23 KMS away from Shimla. Course is carpeted by a fine springy turf, which requires little maintenance. The PAR 68 Course is basically located in a bowl & has 09 Holes, which can be back played to 18. Come back to the hotel for relaxing, dine and overnight stay

Day 07: Shimla - Delhi

Today we will enjoy the train journey from Shimla to Delhi. On arrival transfer to the hotel. Overnight at the hotel.
