

Lhasa Kathmandu overland Tour (Fly in Drive out)

<https://www.nctravels.com/package/tibet-tour-fly-in-drive-out/>

This tour is one of the beautiful trips in Tibet which covers Lhasa, Shigatse, Gyantse, Tingri. It was a fabulous trip. First you fly to Lhasa, the capital of the Tibet Autonomous Region with sightseeing of Potala palace, Jokhang temple, Sera monastery and Drepung monastery.

After Lhasa, drive over the Tibetan Himalayas with an incredible Highway between Lhasa and Kathmandu that connects Nepal with Tibet. Enjoy the Fabulous mountain scenery en route, visit mystical Buddhist monasteries of Tashilumpo at Shigatse, the Kumbum Stupa at Gyantse and drive past the beautiful Turquoise lake.

Itinerary

Day 01: Arrival in Kathmandu and transfer to Hotel.

On arrival in Kathmandu Airport, you would be met and received by our representative & transfer to the hotel. Overnight at the hotel.

Day 02: Kathmandu Sightseeing

After breakfast, proceed for a city tour of Kathmandu visiting Durbar Square, a complex of palaces, courtyard and temples, built between the 12th and 18th centuries, used to be the seat of the ancient Malla kings of Kathmandu. In the afternoon visit the Swoyambunath Stupa and Patan City. Swoyambhunath Stupa, atop the hillock is one of the holiest Buddhist sites in Nepal enlisted in the World Heritage Site. Patan City is an enchanting melange of palace buildings, artistic courtyard and former palace complex. One remarkable monument here is a 16th century temple dedicated to the Hindu God Lord Krishna, built entirely of stone.

Day 03: Lhasa Arrival

Welcome to the roof of the world! Your Tibet journey starts with warm greetings from Tibet tour Operator.com with Khaada/Mala/White Scarf from your I tour guide. Khaada is a Tibetan traditional welcoming and blessing scarf which consists of the meaning of good luck. You will be picked up at the airport or train station, then be escorted to your hotel in Lhasa city at the comfort of your own private vehicle. During the hour-long drive to your hotel in the city, enjoy the breathtaking view along the Yarlung Tsangpo River. Tibetan features can be seen along the way, including Big Buddha engravings on the hill near the road, colorful prayer flags and friendly Tibetan people. Overnight at Lhasa.

After you arrive at your hotel, the rest of the day is free for you to explore around Lhasa and acclimatize yourself to this high altitude city at the top of the world. The altitude in Lhasa is about 3,650m above sea level.

Day 04: Lhasa

After Breakfast Take the challenge of climbing up to Potala Palace (3,650m above sea level) and get a great view of Lhasa's urban areas. Great photographic opportunities along the way up as you will have a great view of the traditional Tibetan architecture. Hear the story of the Dalai Lamas and see chapels that the Dalai Lamas studied, rested and worked in. Pass former Dalai Lamas' graves which are decorated with beautiful treasures.

Continue your tour to Jokhang Temple, which is within walking distance from Potala Palace. It is considered the spiritual center of Tibet. You will see many pilgrims worship within or nearby the temple. Enter the first floor of the temple and absorb the religious atmosphere, you will see pilgrims are donating butter oil to keep the lights burning for the Buddha. While learning about more Buddhas and Lamas than you can possibly remember you will gain a feeling for the vast history of Tibetan Buddhism. You might also hear red-robed Lamas praying. Walk up to the roof of the temple, take some pictures of the gold roof and enjoy the beautiful sunshine of Lhasa while observing pilgrims praying in front of the temple.

Finally, join locals in a traditional pilgrimage route by taking a relaxing walk in a large circular path around Jokhang Temple at Barkor Street. The street is filled with pilgrims taking part in religious activities and street vendors selling a wide variety of traditional Tibetan goods and religious items. If you like you can also ask your tour guide to take you to visit a Thangka workshop to marvel at the fabulous Thangka art work. There are cafes along the street as well. You can relax and enjoy life in Lhasa on a lazy afternoon.

Day 05: Lhasa

After breakfast, you are driven to visit the Norbulingka Park, the former summer palace of the Dalai Lama. Explore the beautiful gardens and experience one of the most holy sites in Tibetan Buddhism while soaking up the rich history. Next, come to Drepung Monastery, which was once the largest Tibetan Buddhist monastery housing 10,000 monks in its heyday. Learn about the lives of Tibetan monks.

Your tour ends at Sera Monastery, where you will get the chance to experience "Buddhism Scriptures Debating". These debates are unique to Sera and are quite famous. Enjoy the debates!

Day 06: Drive To Gyantse via Yamdrok Lake.

Today after breakfast you will leave for Gyantse. Enroute you will enjoy the beautiful Scorpion shaped Yamdrok Lake. Before that you will visit the Drolma Lhakhang Temple. You will have your best picture shot of Yamdrok lake at the highest elevation enroute to Gyantse, KampaLa above 4800 meters.

Yamdrok Lake: After an hour or so driving from Lhasa, you will reach the foothill of Kampa la. From the view point of Kampa La, you will have your best view of Yamdrok Lake. Though you will not see the scorpion shaped lake (view map) but you will see the sky blue water also snow capped in winter. You will drive along the Yamdrok lake for about an hour to Gyantse. On arrival in Gyantse you will be tired. Driver and guide will drive you to the hotel where it's booked. Take a rest and have dinner. Overnight in Gyantse.

Day 07: Drive To Shigatse.

Today after breakfast, the driver will first drop you and the guide at the Kumbum and Pelku Chode. These are the very important sightseeing spots of Gyantse.

Kumbum: The first Kumbum was founded in the year 1427 by a Gyantse prince. It has nine lhakhangs or levels, is 35 metres (115 ft) high surmounted by a golden dome, and contains 77 chapels which line its walls. Many statues were destroyed during the cultural revolutions and have been replaced by clay images. But it lacks the artistic merits of the original.
Pelaku Chode: Pelaku Chode is the Monastery inside the same compound of Kumbum. After finishing with sightseeing of Kumbum and Pelaku Chode, you will drive to Shigatse. It is about 95kms from Gyantse. On arrival in Shigatse you will be driven to Hotel. Overnight in Shigatse.

Day 08: Drive To Xegar

Today after breakfast you will do the sightseeing of Tashilhunpo Monastery.

Tashilhunpo Monastery: Tashilhunpo Monastery was founded in 1447 and is the largest Yellow Hat sect monastery in Tibet. Shigatse is Tibet's 2nd most important city and Tashilhunpo was the seat of the Panchen Lamas. Tashilhunpo contains chortens, temples and the Panchen Lama's palace. At its peak, Tashilhunpo had more than 4,000 monks in its 4 monasteries. Upon the death of a Panchen Lama, it was the 4 abbots of these monasteries that would lead the search for his infant reincarnation. The monastery is a striking red, white and black Tibetan structure with a golden roof. Within the monastery there is a 5 story temple, which contains a 26 meters (86ft) sitting statue of the Maitreya Buddha. The statue was cast from 6,700 ounces of gold and over 115,000 kg of copper, making it the biggest copper Buddhist statue in the world. The massive Thangka wall at Tashilhunpo can be clearly seen from most points in Shigatse. The wall is used for displaying enormous Thangkas – religious painted banners – for only a few festival days each year. After sightseeing you will drive to Xegar. Overnight in Xegar.

Day 09: Drive To Kerung

Continue driving along the Friendship Highway. You will cross two high passes Lablung La (5, 124m) and Tong La (5, 120m) and have the last views of Mount Everest, Sishapangma and Cho Oyu. Then the road drops to Nyalam-the last Tibetan town where you may stop for some refreshment. The road drops sharply along the bank of a river. Upon arrival in Kerung- the last Chinese frontier town. Overnight in Kerung.

Day 10: Kerung-Kodari-Kathmandu.

Today after breakfast you will fill out the custom formalities to cross the border. On the other side, Nepali representative will receive you and your Nepal Tour starts from there. Tibet section comes to an end.

Day 11: Warm Departure.

After Breakfast transfer to the airport for your next destination.